Notes:

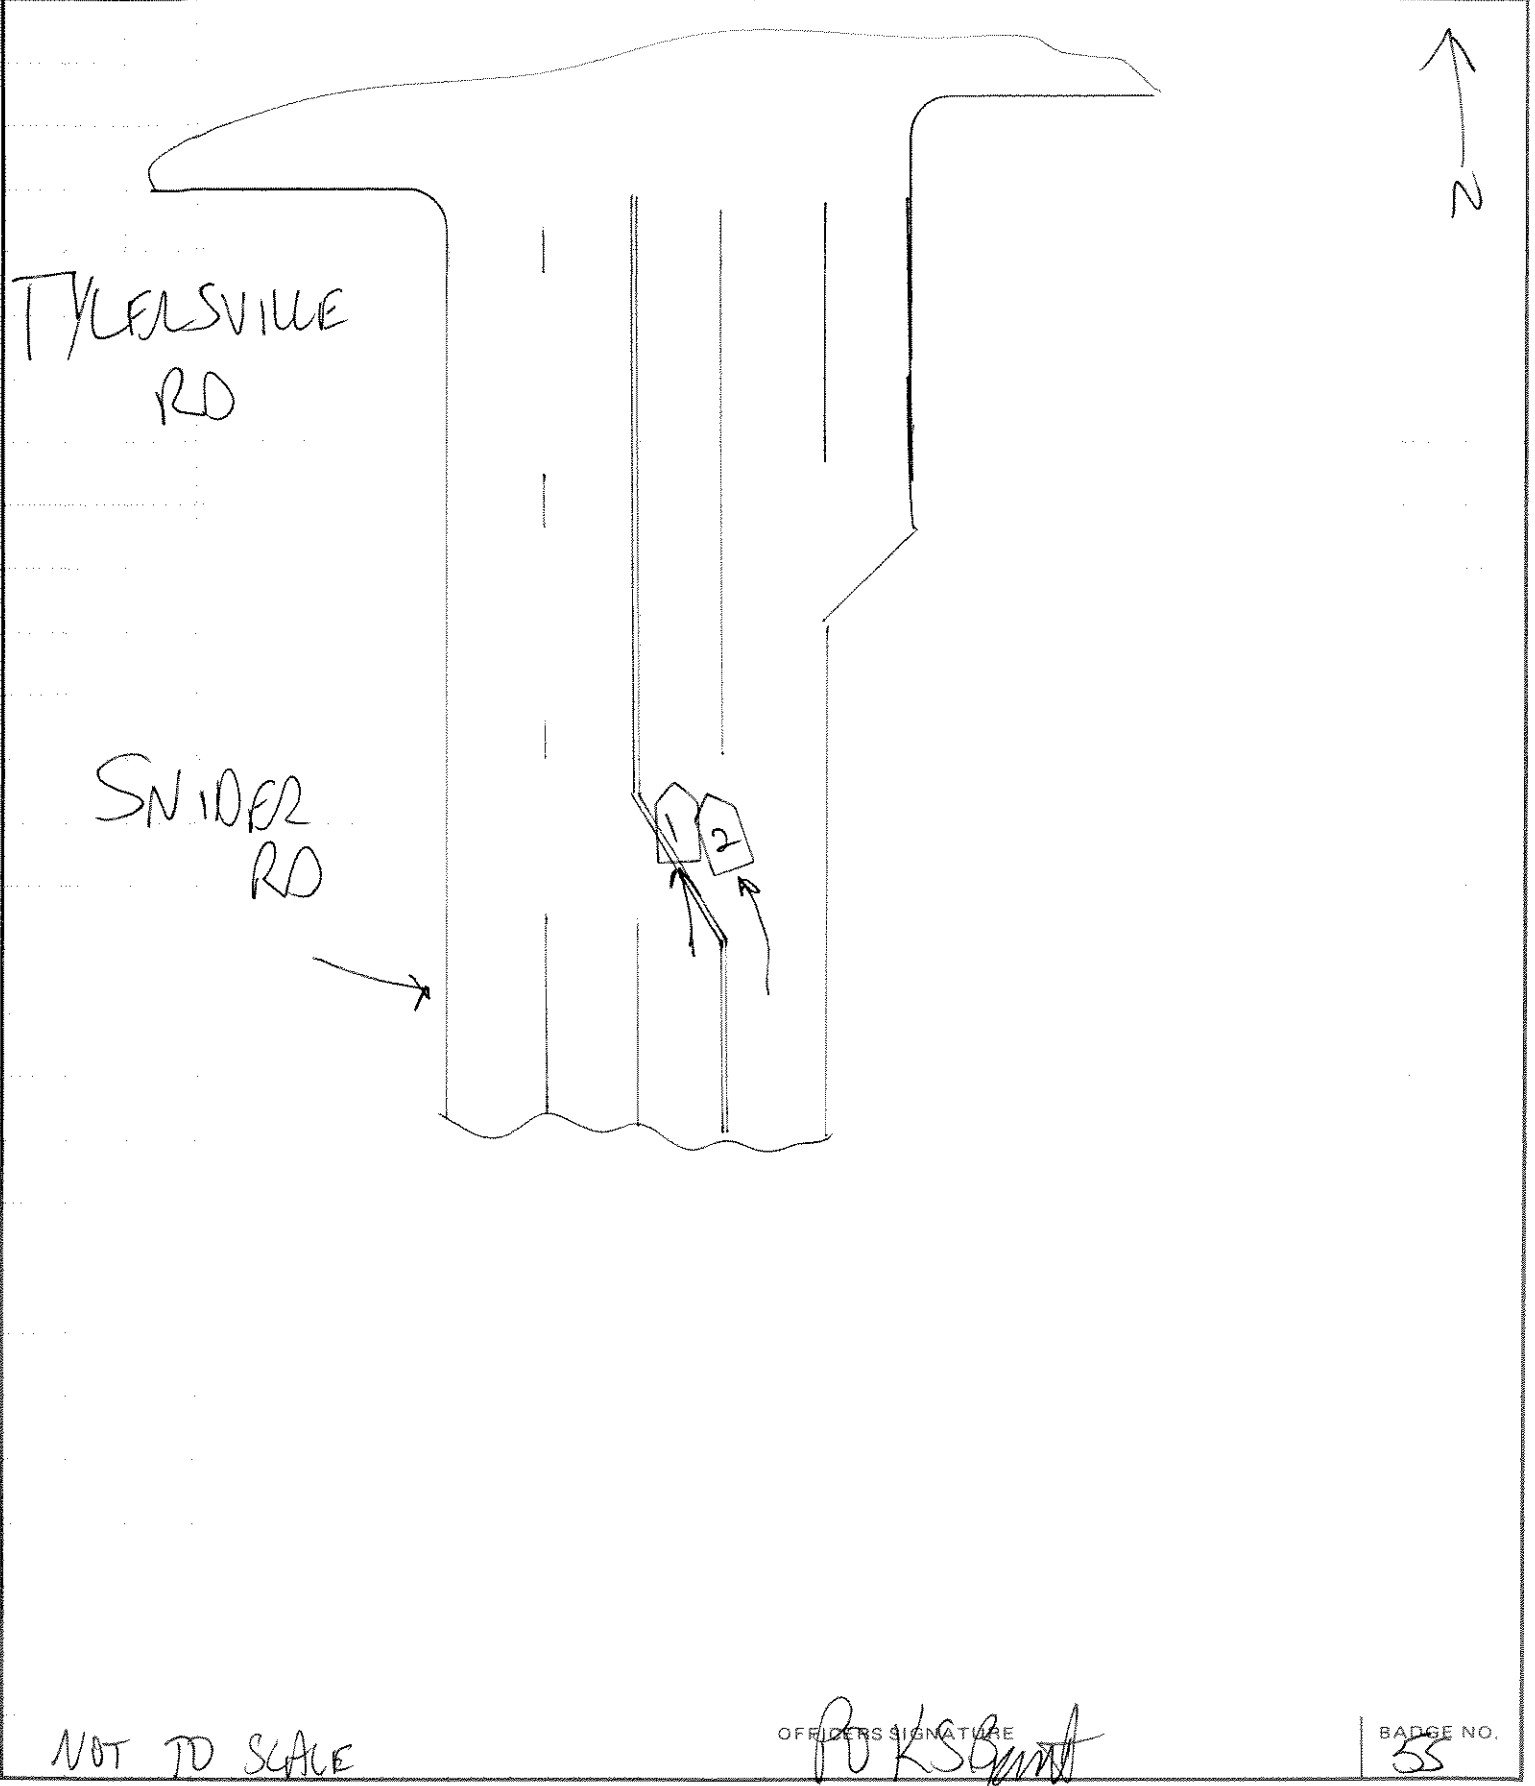

Due to conflicting statements, a lack of physical evidence and no independent witnesses, no citations were issued to either driver. The damage on unit #1 began at the front of the passenger side door and extended toward the rear, with the deepest dent on the passenger side door. The damage to unit #2 was confined to the left front corner of the bumper cover in front of the left front tire. This indicates the vehicles were at some angle to each other when the crash occurred. The exact location of the crash is unknown, but needed in this crash. The left turn lane for northbound traffic on this road begins very near where the crash occurred. It's possible unit #1 came from the opposing, southbound left turn lane, across the double yellow line into the northbound left turn lane when unit #2 was trying to enter the lane. But, it's also possible unit #1 was already in the turn lane when unit #2 began to turn into the lane.
