I was completely stopped at the Red light for at least 4-seconds or so, when suddenly the car behind me slammed into me with impact.

I got out of the car and was told by the driver "her brakes went out".

I don't know if they did, or if she didn't see me stopped with a Red light. She kept apologizing - and asking me if I was OK. Her brakes seemed to be working fine - as the car wasn't rolling.

I was driving at around 30 mph on approaching a traffic light, trying to get my work beeper out of my pocket because it was really uncomfortable with my seatbelt on. I was keeping my eyes on the road and when I went to put my beeper in my purse, I noticed the car in front of me had stopped so I hit my brakes as fast as I could but rear ended the mini van in front of me.
