 I was on Western Row Road in the lane that goes straight at the king's island intersection. I was not in the extreme right lane that is forced to turn right. There was a lady driver in the lane to my left. I was the first car at the light. The lady to my left wanted to get in my lane and in trying to do so, she hit my car just after the light. My friend who was driving behind me in a separate car also witnessed this.

I was wearing a seat belt
 I was not speeding because I was at the light and completely stopped, I was maybe 5 mph.

I was driving right behind Jana Kast. We were coming from Columbia Road. We were going to watch a soccer game and were in the lane that goes straight at King's Island intersection. There was a car on the left side of Jana and I saw her getting closer and closer to Jana. I honked to warn Jana but by that time the driver had hit Jana trying to get in the same lane. Neither of us were speeding. We were not in the extreme right lane because that lane forces you to turn right towards King's Island. There's a median at the light and we were in the lane going straight.
